

Data protection information pursuant to Art. 13 & Art. 14 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for video surveillance at the Stuttgart site

1. Name and contact details of the controller and data protection officer

Below, we provide information about the processing of your personal data by

PHOENIX International Holdings GmbH
Pfingstweidstraße 10-12
68199 Mannheim

You can contact our data protection officer at

2. Purposes and legal basis of data processing

Video surveillance is carried out to protect property rights, deter theft and vandalism, investigate theft and damage to property, and implement the necessary technical and organisational measures relating to data and information security.

The legal basis is Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR.

3. Legitimate interests pursued

Our legitimate interests consist of protecting our property, preventing or investigating criminal offences, asserting, exercising or defending legal claims, and controlling unauthorised access.

4. Storage period/deletion periods

The recordings are generally stored for a period of seven days and then automatically deleted. If an incident occurs, the recordings will be stored for the duration of the investigation and prosecution of the incident or the exercise, assertion or defence of any legal claims and then deleted.

5. Your rights

You have the following rights vis-à-vis us, which you can assert in each case against the body named in section 1:

- Right to information: You are entitled at any time to request confirmation from the controller as to whether personal data concerning you is being processed. If this is the case, you may, within the framework of the statutory provisions under Art. 15 GDPR, request information free of charge about your data processed by us, the purposes of the processing, the storage period or the criteria for determining the storage period and the recipients of the data.
- Right to erasure: You have the right to request that the controller erase personal data concerning you without undue delay if one of the reasons listed in detail in Art. 17 GDPR applies, e.g. if the data is no longer required for the purposes pursued.
- Right to restriction of processing: You have the right to request that the controller restrict processing if one of the conditions listed in Art. 18 GDPR applies, e.g. if the data subject has objected to the processing, for the duration of the controller's review.
- Right to object: You have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of data concerning you by us on the basis of Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR (legitimate interest of the controller). In this case, we will no longer process the data concerning you, unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims (Art. 21 GDPR). Please send any objections to the address given in section 1.
- Right to lodge a complaint: Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you consider that the processing of personal data concerning you infringes the GDPR (Art. 77 GDPR). You can exercise this right with a supervisory authority in the Member State of your residence, your place of work or the place of the alleged infringement. You can lodge a complaint with the competent state data protection authority:
